A person with brown hair and glasses is visible from the chest up, holding a large white sign. They are wearing bright yellow gloves and pointing upwards with both hands. The sign contains text about neural networks and a technology called 'Now00:00'.

... a unique system of neural networks that detects the patterns of forced conscious manipulation triggering the fake desire. The active part of our outstanding technology - the "Now00:00" - is then able to stimulate hypothalamus and activate the defense mechanism.
